Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 10, 2020, Beyond Meat, Inc. (the “Company”) and Roquette Frères (“Roquette”) entered into a Multi-Year Sales Agreement (the “Sales Agreement”) pursuant to which Roquette will provide the Company with plant-based protein. The agreement expires on December 31, 2022; however it can be terminated after 18 months under certain circumstances. This agreement increases the amount of plant-based protein to be supplied by Roquette in each of 2020, 2021 and 2022 compared to the amount supplied 2019. The plant-based protein sourced under the supply agreement is secured on a purchase order basis regularly, per specified minimum monthly and semi-annual quantities, throughout the term. The Company is not required to purchase plant-based protein in amounts in excess of such specified minimum quantities; however the Company has the option to increase such minimum quantities for delivery in each of 2021 and 2022. The total annual amount purchased each year by the Company must be at least the minimum amount specified in the agreement, which totals in the aggregate $154.1 million over the term of the agreement. The Company also has the right to be indemnified by Roquette in certain circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Sales Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Sales Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 attached hereto, and the terms of which are incorporated by reference herein.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

2. QUANTITY, ORDERS AND DELIVERY

QUANTITIES

2.1 The quantities of Product that Buyer shall Order from Seller and that Seller shall sell and Deliver to Buyer in each calendar year during the Term (hereinafter the “Annual Base Quantities”) shall be:

- 2020: [] Mlbs spread over the year as follows:
 - []: [] Mlbs
 - []: [] Mlbs
- 2021: [] Mlbs, []; and
- 2022: [] Mlbs, [].

Without prejudice to the Annual Base Quantities as mutually agreed by the Parties here above and as part of Buyer’s forecasts pursuant to section 2.4 below, the minimum quantities that Buyer shall order and that Seller shall deliver in any given month shall be [] Mlbs ([] pounds). For the purpose of clarity, all quantities of Product shipped by Seller to Buyer after January 1st 2020 (totalling [] Mlbs as of the Effective Date of the Agreement) shall be deemed to be credited to the 2020 Annual Base Quantities and subject to the terms of this Agreement.

The price for the Annual Base Quantities shall be agreed mutually between the Parties in accordance with sections 3.1 and 3.2 below.

If Buyer does not purchase the Annual Base Quantities, Buyer shall pay to Seller promptly, as liquidated damages, the amounts that Buyer would have paid to Seller for the Annual Base Quantities which have not been purchased by Buyer, without any possibility for Buyer to roll over to the following calendar year the said Annual Base Quantities not purchased. The Parties agree that such liquidated damages payment represents the true and reasonable estimate of the loss suffered by Seller and such liquidated amount shall be due without set-off within thirty (30) calendar days of Buyer’s receipt of Seller’s valid invoice therefor. The Parties agree that quantifying losses arising from Buyer’s failure to order all Annual Base Quantities is inherently difficult because Seller will reserve a significant part of its production of the Product for Buyer and that Seller will incur significant damages as a consequence of Buyer’s failure to purchase the Annual Base Quantities, including but not limited to additional selling costs and disruptions in Seller’s operations. At the Effective Date, the liquidated damages as defined above are not a penalty but considered as reasonable, based on the Parties’ experience in the industry and the nature of the losses and costs incurred by Buyer’s failure under this section 2.1.

If Seller refuses to supply, or is otherwise unable to supply, the Annual Base Quantities (or of an appropriate substitute equivalent in all material respects as determined by Buyer in its reasonable discretion) in a timely manner in accordance with the Delivery Dates, Seller shall pay to Buyer promptly, as liquidated damages, the difference between the amounts that Buyer would have paid to Seller for the Annual Base Quantities had Seller Delivered the Annual Base Quantities and the amounts that Buyer actually paid to a Third Party for replacement products to cover Seller’s failure to Deliver [], provided however, that the amounts paid by Buyer for replacement products shall be commercially reasonable as determined by Buyer in its reasonable discretion in light of market conditions as of the date of purchase. In addition, the quantities of replacement products (in Mlbs) shall be credited against the Annual Base Quantities as if Buyer had purchased, and Seller had supplied, such products as Product. The Parties agree that such liquidated damages payment represents the true and reasonable estimate of the loss suffered by Buyer and such liquidated amount shall be due without set-off within thirty (30) calendar days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's valid invoice therefor. The Parties agree that quantifying losses arising from Seller's failure to supply the Annual Base Quantities is inherently difficult because Buyer will allocate a significant part of its requirements for Product to Seller and that Buyer will incur significant damages as a consequence of Seller's failure to supply the Annual Base Quantities, including but not limited to additional buying costs and disruptions in Buyer's operations. At the Effective Date, the liquidated damages as defined above are not a penalty but considered as reasonable, based on the Parties' experience in the industry and the nature of the losses and costs incurred by Seller's failure under this section 2.1.

2.2 After the exhaustion of the Annual Base Quantities, Buyer has the option to buy additional quantities year by year over the Term as follows (hereinafter the "Additional Quantities"):

- 2021: [] Mlbs; and
- 2022: [] Mlbs.

Without prejudice to sections 2.4 below, Buyer shall confirm to Seller by no later than [] of each year its intention to buy some or all of the Additional Quantities for the following year. Such Additional Quantities must be integrated in Buyer's forecasts in accordance with section 2.4 below. To the extent confirmed, Seller shall sell and Deliver to Buyer the Additional Quantities in accordance with this Agreement.

At the end of the Term, if Buyer did not purchase the total amount of the Additional Quantities according to sections 2.4 to 2.7 below, Seller shall be entitled to retain the amount of the Prepayment Amount corresponding to the value of the Additional Quantities not purchased by Buyer, up to a maximum value corresponding to the Prepayment Amount.

If Seller refuses to supply, or is otherwise unable to supply, the Additional Quantities (or of an appropriate substitute equivalent in all material respects as determined by Buyer in its reasonable discretion) in a timely manner in accordance with the Delivery Dates, Seller shall pay to Buyer promptly, as liquidated damages, the difference between the amounts that Buyer would have paid to Seller for the Additional Quantities had Seller Delivered the Additional Quantities and the amounts that Buyer actually paid to a Third Party for replacement products to cover Seller's failure to Deliver [], plus the amount of the Prepayment Amount corresponding to the value of the Additional Quantities not delivered by Seller, up to a maximum value corresponding to the Prepayment Amount, provided however, that the amounts paid by Buyer for replacement products shall be commercially reasonable as determined by Buyer in its reasonable discretion in light of market conditions as of the date of purchase. In addition, the quantities of replacement products (in Mlbs) shall be credited against the Additional Quantities as if Buyer had purchased, and Seller had supplied, such products as Product. The Parties agree that such liquidated damages payment represents the true and reasonable estimate of the loss suffered by Buyer and such liquidated amount shall be due without set-off within thirty (30) calendar days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's valid invoice therefor.

The Parties agree that quantifying losses arising from Seller's failure to supply the Additional Quantities is inherently difficult because Buyer will allocate a significant part of its requirements for Product to Seller and that Buyer will incur significant damages as a consequence of Seller's failure to supply the Additional Quantities, including but not limited to additional buying costs and disruptions in Buyer's operations. At the Effective Date, the liquidated damages as defined above are not a penalty but considered as reasonable, based on the Parties' experience in the industry and the nature of the losses and costs incurred by Seller's failure under this section 2.2.

2.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Parties agree that their sole and exclusive remedies for failure to purchase or failure to sell Annual Base Quantities, or failure to purchase or failure to sell Additional Quantities of Product are set forth in sections 2.1 and 2.2 of this Agreement, and the Parties shall have no cause of action in contract, tort or otherwise for additional relief in connection with any failure to purchase or supply product, other than in the case of willful misconduct or fraud by the breaching Party.

FORECASTS AND ORDERS

2.4 By no later than [] each year during the Term, Buyer undertakes to provide Seller with an annual non-binding forecast taking into account any seasonality effect that would reasonably be expected to impact Buyer's business, the regularity of Buyer's production pace and the regularity of its Orders over a calendar year; provided that (i) with respect to 2020, Buyer undertakes to provide Seller with an annual non-binding forecast for such calendar year no later than [] and (ii) with respect to the quantities of Product Ordered by Buyer to be Delivered in [], Buyer shall inform Seller of such quantities and their quarterly allocation over the year by no later than [] each year. With regard to 2020, Buyer shall inform Seller of the quantities to be Delivered in [] before [].

In addition to the annual non-binding forecast, Buyer undertakes to provide Seller with a [] binding rolling forecast at least thirty (30) days before the starting date of the [] rolling forecast, detailing Product, quantities, packaging and delivery points; provided that with respect to 2020, Buyer undertakes to provide Seller with a binding forecast for the balance of Q1 2020 no later than []. In any event, Seller shall confirm in writing its acceptance of Buyer's [] binding rolling forecast within ten (10) Business Days from the date of receipt by Seller. In the event that Buyer does not receive such written acceptance within such 10 (ten) Business Day period and the relevant forecast shall be deemed to be accepted by Seller.

In case Buyer fails to provide Seller with its [] binding rolling forecast, Buyer shall purchase the quantities set forth in the annual non-binding forecast, that then become binding on Buyer on a rolling [] basis, until such time as Buyer provides such binding rolling forecast and provided Seller confirms its acceptance of it.

2.5 Provided that (i) an Order is made in accordance with section 2.4 above and (ii) the requested Delivery date complies with Seller's Lead Times, Seller shall confirm each Order by issuing a written order confirmation within [] Business Days from the date the Order is received by Seller. In the event that Buyer does not receive such written order confirmation within such [] Business Day period and the relevant Order is made in accordance with section 2.4 above, the Order shall be deemed to be confirmed by Seller.

2.6 The estimated schedule of the shipment for each Order will be set forth in the Order. Seller will ship the Product from its distribution center in accordance with such schedule provided that Seller has confirmed it as part of the Order terms.

2.7 Buyer shall inform Seller of any requested change as to an Order at least [] Business Days before such change and in any case before an Order is shipped by Seller.

2.8 The Product shall be packed for shipment in accordance with Seller's packaging data sheet or any other specification signed by Seller in a manner sufficient to ensure the integrity of the Product.

2.9 Upon Delivery, Buyer shall notify Seller of any Apparent Defects within [] Business Days from the Delivery to Buyer, otherwise the Product shall be considered as accepted by Buyer notwithstanding any such Apparent Defects. Such notification shall be accompanied by a photograph of the Apparent Defect.

2.10 Seller shall promptly provide written notice to Buyer of any of the following events or occurrences, or any facts or circumstances reasonably likely to give rise to any of the following events or occurrences: (a) any failure by Seller to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement; (b) any delay in delivery of Product; (c) any defects or quality problems relating to Product; (d) any change of control of Seller (whether by merger, sale of voting securities or assets, consolidation, reorganization or otherwise) and (e) any failure by Seller, or its subcontractors or common carriers, to comply with all applicable laws, rules, guidelines, and regulations (including, without limitation, the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, and all other laws, rules, guidelines, and regulations regarding food safety, composition, labelling, registration, and manufacturing, including good manufacturing practices prevailing in the industry) (collectively, “Applicable Laws”).

2.11 During the term of the Agreement, each Party shall carry and maintain in force, at its own cost and expense, insurance of the following types:

- a. commercial general liability insurance (including bodily injury, death and property damage) in an amount of not less than $[] (combined single limit on each occurrence and in the aggregate), including personal injury, and property damage and contractual liability coverage;
- b. employer's liability insurance with limits not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence covering all employees employed by the party; and
- c. automobile liability insurance for owned, non-owned, leased, hired, operated and/or licensed automobiles, trucks, tractors and all-terrain vehicles with limits of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and in the aggregate for accidental injury to one or more persons or damage to or destruction of property as a result of one accident or occurrence.

Each Party shall, upon the other party's request, furnish to the other party certificates of insurance or other appropriate documentation evidencing all coverage referenced herein.

All insurance coverage described herein shall be written through insurance companies authorized to do business in the applicable state or country and, when relevant, rated no less than A- VII in the most current edition of A.M. Best's Key Rating Guide.

3. PRICES AND PAYMENTS

3.1 Subject to section 3.2 below, the price for Product in the first eighteen (18) months of the Term (the “Initial Pricing Period”) is set forth in Exhibit A.

For the remainder of the Term (“Balance of the Term”), Seller shall make a price offer to Buyer no later than []. Buyer may then at its sole option either (i) accept Seller's price offer or (ii) initiate []. If Buyer decides to initiate [], it will provide Seller written notice of such decision by [] and the following process shall occur:

(a) []

(b) [] in the event that Buyer is unable to obtain [] identified by Seller, as provided above, Buyer will provide [] to an independent, third-party auditor mutually acceptable to the Parties (the “Auditor”), which will determine [] and deliver such determination in writing to Buyer and Seller within [] Business Days of delivery to the Auditor of the final []. The determination of the Auditor shall be final, binding, non-appealable and not subject to dispute resolution. The cost and expenses of the Auditor shall be borne by the Parties on a 50/50 basis.

(c) If the price for Product offered by Seller for the Balance of the Term pursuant to section 3.1 above is [], the Agreement will continue in full force and effect for the Balance of the Term at the Seller's offered price.

(d) If the price for Product offered by Seller for the Balance of the Term pursuant to section 3.1 above is [], then Seller shall either: (i) [] for the Balance of the Term to [] and the Agreement will continue in full force and effect for the Balance of the Term; or (ii) notify Buyer that it has elected to terminate the Agreement without prejudice to section 3.3 (a) below.

(e) If Seller elects to terminate the Agreement pursuant to section 3.1(d)(ii), Seller shall be entitled to request at any time on or before [] that an Auditor confirm that Buyer in fact []. The determination of the Auditor shall be final, binding, non-appealable and not subject to dispute resolution. The cost and expenses of the independent third-party auditor shall be borne by Seller unless the Auditor determines that Buyer failed to [] and [] pursuant thereto in which case Buyer shall pay for 100% of the costs and expenses of the Auditor.

(f) In case the Auditor determines that Buyer []. The Parties agree that such liquidated damages payment represents the true and reasonable estimate of the loss suffered by Seller and such liquidated amount shall be due without set-off within [] calendar days of Buyer's receipt of Seller's valid invoice therefor. The Parties agree that quantifying losses arising from Buyer's misrepresentation in connection with, and/or other misuse of the [] is inherently difficult because Seller will reserve a significant part of its production of the Product for Buyer and that Seller will incur significant damages as a consequence of Buyer's misrepresentation and/or misuse, including but not limited to additional selling costs and disruptions in Seller's operations. At the date of signature of the Agreement, the liquidated damages as defined above are not a penalty but considered as reasonable, based on the Parties' experience in the industry and the nature of the losses and costs incurred by Buyer's misrepresentation and/or misuse of this section 3.1.

3.2 Notwithstanding section 3.1 above, during the Initial Pricing Period, the prices for Product will be []: (a) with respect to Product to be shipped to locations in [], the prices offered by Seller to [] for [] of the Product being shipped to locations in []; (b) with respect to Product to be shipped to locations in [], the prices offered by Seller to [] for [] of Product being shipped to locations in []. For the sake of clarity, this clause will only apply to contracts entered into on or after the Effective Date. Within [] days of the end of the Initial Pricing Period, the Auditor will conduct a review of the prices offered by Seller to [] according to terms and conditions defined above. Seller will make available to the Auditor all materials, information and Seller personnel reasonably required for the Auditor to perform such review. If the Auditor determines that [] was offered a price for the Product that was [] the prices for Product sold under this Agreement at such time, Seller will promptly issue a credit to Buyer for []. To the extent that the Agreement is terminated prior to the Buyer using the credit in full, Seller will make prompt payment of the unused portion of such credit to Buyer within [] Business Days of termination. The determination of the Auditor under this section 3.2 shall be final, binding, non-appealable and not subject to dispute resolution. The cost and expenses of the independent third-party auditor shall be borne by the Parties on a 50/50 basis unless the Auditor determines that a credit is due to Buyer, in which case Seller shall pay for 100% of the costs and expenses of the Auditor.

3.3 Within [] Business Days of the Effective Date, Buyer shall advance to Seller the Prepayment Amount.

(a) If the Agreement is terminated in accordance with section 3.1(d)(ii), Buyer will be entitled to Order Product for a value corresponding to the Prepayment Amount at the price that applied during the Initial Pricing Period. Any such purchases will be credited to the [] to be purchased by Buyer following termination as set forth in section 3.1(e), if the Auditor determines that any such obligation exists.

(b) If the Agreement is not terminated in accordance with section 3.1(d)(ii), the Prepayment Amount will be applied to the [] payable for Additional Quantities purchased by Buyer hereunder at the rate of [] for each of such [].

3.4 Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, all shipments shall have net [] days payment terms from the date Buyer receives Seller's invoice.

3.5 All amounts due under this Agreement or an Order shall be paid in immediately available U.S. Dollars by direct bank transfer to the receiving Party's bank account designated in writing to the paying Party, or such other means as may be agreed between the Parties in writing from time to time. With regard to the price for the Product, Buyer shall bear all bank charges associated with any such payment.

3.6 All taxes or similar obligations levied on Seller shall be borne solely by Seller and Buyer shall have no responsibility or liability therefor provided however that the mutually agreed INCOTERM, being DDP or FCA at the Effective Date remains the same. Any change that would be mutually agreed by the Parties with regard to the INCOTERM may affect the Parties' obligations as to taxes and in that case, Buyer and Seller shall then confer and discuss possible consequences of such change.

3.7 If any payment due hereunder is overdue by more than three (3) Business Days, then at the written request of the Party that is owed the payment, the Party making such payment shall be liable to pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of []% from the date that the payment was originally due and owing.

4. TITLE – TRANSFER OF RISK

4.1 Title to the Product will pass to Buyer at Delivery.

4.2 Risk of loss will pass to Buyer in accordance with the mutually agreed INCOTERM, irrespective of whether title to the Product remains vested in Seller.

5. WARRANTY

5.1 During the Shelf Life of the Product or until [] after the Delivery Date of the Product whichever is longer (the “Warranty Period”), the Product, as originally packaged by Seller, shall meet the Specifications and shall be compliant with all Applicable Laws. Further, Seller agrees that the Product: (a) are prepared in accordance with all Applicable Laws; (b) are merchantable and free from defects, latent or otherwise; (c) are new and conveyed by Seller to Buyer with good title, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances of any kind; and (e) do not infringe, misappropriate, or otherwise violate the intellectual property or other proprietary rights of any Person. Seller further agrees that it will perform its obligations hereunder in compliance with all Applicable Laws.

5.2 EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, SELLER MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, CONCERNING THE PRODUCT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR THE RESULTS TO BE DERIVED FROM THE USE OF THE PRODUCT. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, BUYER ASSUMES ALL RISKS AND LIABILITY FOR (i) RESULTS OBTAINED BY THE USE OF THE PRODUCT PURCHASED HEREUNDER, WHETHER USED AS DELIVERED OR IN COMBINATION WITH OTHER PRODUCT, (ii) DETERMINING FITNESS FOR USE IN, OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH, OTHER PRODUCT, (iii) OBTAINING GOVERNMENTAL HEALTH, SAFETY, ENVIRONMENTAL OR OTHER APPROVALS FOR UTILIZATION, AND (iv) FOR ANY LOSS OR DAMAGE RESULTING FROM THE HANDLING, USE OR MISUSE BY BUYER OF PRODUCT PURCHASED HEREUNDER.

5.3 In case of non-conformity to the warranties stated in section 5.1 discovered during the Warranty Period (“Defective Product”), Seller shall replace promptly and free of charge any Defective Product and subject to any and all limitation and exclusion under section 9.1 herein, reimburse any Losses incurred by Buyer due to the Defective Product provided that:

(b) Buyer has performed the appropriate inspection upon delivery of the Product so that any Apparent Defect has been identified and Seller has been notified of such Apparent Defect in accordance with section 2.9 above;

(c) Seller is permitted to make a full examination of the alleged non-conformity(ies), to Seller’s reasonable satisfaction; provided that such examination shall be coordinated with Buyer and shall not unreasonably interfere with Buyer’s operations. If Seller, acting reasonably and in good faith, rejects the alleged non-conformities, the Parties shall attempt in good faith to designate an independent testing laboratory to determine whether the alleged non-conformities exist, the findings of which shall be final, binding and non-appealable and not subject to dispute resolution. The costs and expenses of such laboratory testing shall be borne by the Party whose position is determined to have been in error or if the laboratory cannot determine the source of the error, then the Parties shall share equally the costs and expenses of the laboratory equally. If a suitable independent testing laboratory cannot be designated by mutual agreement of the Parties, the dispute shall be resolved in accordance with section 16 below.

(d) The non-conformity did not result from Buyer’s non-compliance with this Agreement or the Order, and did not result from mishandling or gross negligence on the part of Buyer or a Third Party acting on the instructions of Buyer.

If Seller determines that a Defective Product pursuant to section 5 cannot be replaced within [] Business Days, Seller may direct Buyer to return the Defective Product to Seller or destroy it, in each case at Seller’s sole cost and expense, and Seller will promptly reimburse Buyer for the price actually paid by Buyer to Seller for such Defective Product; provided that the Defective Product shall be credited against the Annual Base Quantities and/or Additional Quantities, as applicable. If Seller directs Buyer to destroy the Defective Product, Buyer shall send the certificate of destruction by an external laboratory and an evidence of the destruction of the entire quantity of Defective Product.

5.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Buyer, any of Buyer’s customers, or any governmental authority reasonably determines that any Product sold to Buyer is a Defective Product and as a consequence of this a recall of Buyer’s product is necessary, Buyer may implement such recall campaign and return any Product that has been evidenced as a Defective Product and that it still has in its warehouses to Seller or destroy such Product, as determined by Seller at Seller’s sole cost, expense and risk. If a recall campaign is implemented with respect to a Defective Product, at Buyer’s option, Seller shall promptly replace any Defective Product and provide such replacement Product to Buyer or Buyer’s designee. Seller will be liable for Buyer’s costs and expenses associated with any such recall campaign without prejudice to the limitation of liability in section 9.1 below.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

6.1 Each party will keep all Confidential Information of the other Party confidential, secure and protected against theft, damage, loss or unauthorised access, and will not at any time without the prior written consent of the other Party use or disclose any of the other Party’s Confidential Information other than for the sole purpose of the performance of its obligations and the exercise of its rights under this Agreement. 6.4 In the event that a Party is requested or required by Applicable Laws to disclose any of the Confidential Information, to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, such Party will, and will direct its representatives to (i) provide the disclosing Party with prompt prior written notice of such requirement so that the disclosing Party may, at its sole expense, seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the terms of this Agreement, (ii) take reasonable steps to preserve the privileged nature and confidentiality of the Confidential Information, including requesting that the Confidential Information not be disclosed to non-parties or the public, and (iii) reasonably cooperate with the disclosing Party, at its sole expense, to obtain such protective order. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, or that the disclosing Party waives compliance with the provisions hereof, receiving Party or its representatives may furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information which the receiving Party or its representatives is advised by counsel is required by Applicable Laws and agrees to exercise reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Confidential Information. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no prior notice or other action shall be required in respect of any disclosure made to any banking, financial, accounting, securities or similar supervisory authority exercising its routine supervisory or audit functions, provided that such disclosure is made in the ordinary course and is not specific to the disclosing Party or this Agreement.

6.5 Each Party agrees that legal remedies may be inadequate to protect its interests in the event of any breach or threatened breach of any provision of section 6 of this Agreement, and that the non-breaching Party will be entitled to seek equitable relief, including injunctive relief (without requirement of any bond or security), damages and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity.

In such event, Buyer may purchase substantially equivalent but non-infringing products from Third Parties, and the amounts of such purchases shall be credited against the Annual Base Quantities and/or Additional Quantities, as applicable. Buyer agrees that the liquidated damages available for Seller's inability to supply non-infringing Product is the same as set forward in section 2.1 for the Seller's inability or refusal to supply Annual Base Quantities of the Product for any reason, and such liquidated damages shall be Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy for Seller's termination of the Order pursuant to this section 7.5(c).

Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall constitute the Parties as partners, joint venturers or co-owners, constitute either Party as the agent, employee or representative of the other, or empower either Party to act for, bind or otherwise create or assume any obligation on behalf of the other Party.

18.2 The Parties shall do and execute all such further acts and things as are reasonably required to give full effect to the rights given and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

18.3 The failure of either Party to enforce any term of or right arising pursuant to this Agreement and/or any Order does not constitute a waiver of such term or right and shall in no way affect that Party's right later to enforce or exercise the term or right.

18.4 The invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability of any term of or right arising pursuant to this Agreement and/or any Order shall not adversely affect the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining terms and rights. If any term of this Agreement and/or any Order is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, then the Parties will work together with one another to replace the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable term with a term consistent with the spirit of the original term that is not invalid, illegal, or unenforceable.
